

Wine challenge for our winter edition

Dear Sir or Madam,

for our upcoming edition we would like to give you the opportunity to present your best wines and sparkling wines. Take part at our tasting challenge and reach an interesting target group!

Good news! 2014 the number of copies published of selection magazine, one of Germany's most important wine and lifestyle magazines, increased by more than the double (target group are qualified employees and executives). Reach about 300.000 readers with high spending power and high interest in wine, sparkling wine and spirits!

From now on you can register your wines and sparkling wines for the following competitions:

- Sparkling delight - the sparkling wine challenge – click here for more information
- Top wines by price category- click here for more information

Our specialist jury evaluates the products in accordance with the 100-point system. All achieving at least 82 points will receive a certificate and will be announced on our website. The best 30 % of all products will be published in our print magazine in November! You will get the results in the middle of September.
